GGAA Newsletter January 2019

Dear All,

Happy new year!

Potatoes

The 2019 order for potatoes has now been delivered. If you pre-ordered please pick them up, and pay if you have not paid already.

Apart from the pre-orders we now have 2kg bags of:

- Pentland javelin
- International kidney
- Charlotte
- Kestrel
- Desiree
- Pink fir apple
- King Edward
- and new onions and shallots

Rent

All rent is now due, please. The last day to pay is 31 January 2109. Bank transfer preferred, no cash, cheques are OK. Thanks.

Manure deliveries

Very sorry for the non-delivery in December. Anna spent most of the day waiting for them (Biffa) but they never turned up. She contacted them again the following day but they never got back to her. Maybe we will try again....one day.

Tree trimming 28 November 2018

All done, and looks good, we think. Any issues let us know. The wood chips seemed to vanish quickly, and tidied up. Thank you.

Shop opening hours

The shop will now be open during normal winter opening hours.

Whatshed.co.uk

We were contacted by Whatshed a website that helps you choose your next garden shed. They are doing a national survey of allotments and they have list of allotment blog sites that might be interesting. We will put a link to them on our website, but for now have a look at https://whatshed.co.uk/list-local-authority-owned-allotments/ and https://whatshed.co.uk/why-gardening-is-good-for-your-health

Happy digging
